CYPRESSFIRST COMMENTS ON ONGOING PRACTICE OF EXCESSIVE COMPENSATION OF CYPRESS SEMICONDUCTOR EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN RAY BINGHAM

Neglecting 2016 Commitment to Increase the Number of Equity Grants Tied to Performance, Cypress Compensation Committee Awards Bingham Approximately $3.25 Million of Service-only-based Stock

SAN JOSE, C.A., March 27, 2017— In response to the recent award of 232,558 restricted stock units, currently worth approximately $3.25 million, to Ray Bingham, executive chairman of Cypress Semiconductor Corporation (NASDAQ: CY) (“Cypress” or “the Company”), Camillo Martino and J. Daniel McCranie, nominees for election to the Cypress Board of Directors at the 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and T.J. Rodgers, founder and former CEO of Cypress and the Company’s largest individual stockholder, (collectively “CypressFirst”) today issued the following statement:

“Even during a period where Ray Bingham’s excessive and unnecessary compensation is the subject of stockholder scrutiny, Cypress has awarded Mr. Bingham restricted stock units currently worth about $3.25 million. Mr. Bingham’s equity vests over three years and is contingent only on being ‘an employee in good standing of the Company through the applicable vesting date,’ which suggests that Cypress does not regard Mr. Bingham’s executive chairmanship as the temporary position it was originally defined to be.”

This grant vests quarterly in equal installments over a period of three years from the date of grant. The award was disclosed by the Company on March 22, 2017, in a filing on Form 8-K (<http://cypressfirst.com/pdf/Cypress-8k.pdf>) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). CypressFirst contrasted the terms of the grant to Mr. Bingham with the grants to other employees described in the same 8-K. Those grants to the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (Hassane El-Khoury), Chief Financial Officer (Thad Trent), and Executive Vice President, Operations & Technology (Dana C. Nazarian) are based both service and performance. In the case of every top officer except Mr. Bingham, the Compensation Committee, under the leadership of lead independent director Eric Benhamou, set the milestones under which participants are eligible to earn Performance-based Restricted Stock (PARS) under the 2017 PARS Program with approximately 55 percent based on performance milestones and approximately 45 percent based on service milestones. The performance-based components of the PARS grants include debt leverage, profit before tax, strategic initiatives, gross margin and revenue growth. Mr. Bingham’s award, however, is subject to none of the listed performance criteria.

“It’s hard to miss the sharp contrast between other Cypress executive officers, who must meet certain defined performance milestones as part of their equity compensation, and Mr. Bingham. To expect stockholders to finance such an extravagant compensation arrangement without submitting Mr. Bingham to the same performance standards as other executives speaks poorly as to Mr. Bingham’s commitment as an executive of the Company. And while Cypress makes equity grants to their outside directors that are not performance-based, the grants that have thus far been made to Mr. Bingham as executive chairman are more than 22 times greater than an annual grant made to one of Cypress's outside directors."
